

Simple Examinations System

Requirements:

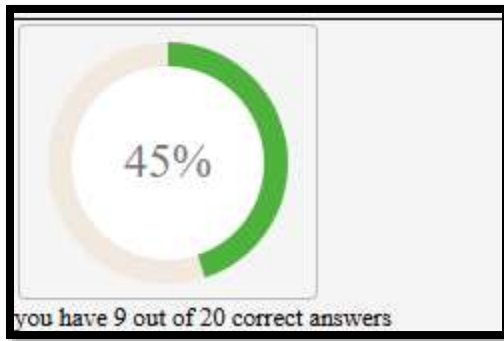

- 1- Exam questions will be available as JS array of objects
each object is a Question (10 Questions)
each question contains title , image answers, and correct answer
- 2- your files should be organized html, js and css.
- 3- you should have a good design and good elements alignments on the page
- 4- Home page should take student name (use any exists popups library) , then a start button will be activated.
- 5- The exam should be managed by displaying a timer bar (1 minute).
- 6- One question should be displayed on the page with next button (without previous button)
the question should be looks like this

- 7- apply this google font to question and answers

Everyone has the right to freedom of

- 8- next button will be deactivated, until student select an answer
- 9- The user can select only one answer (selected answer will have gray background color directly after user selection)
- 10- All questions should be randomized each time we run the exam and all answers should be randomized for each question
- 11- At the end
if the user answer all questions or if the time is out the result should be displayed as follow

Best Of Luck 😊

Deadline 25/12/2024